City Streets and Country Roads

By Eleanor Farjeon

The city has streets-
But the country has roads.
In the country one meets
Blue carts with their loads
Of sweet smelling hay,
And mangolds and grain.
Oh, take me away
To the country again!

In the city one sees
Big trams rattle by.
And the breath of the chimneys
That blot out the sky,
And all down the pavements
Stiff lamp-posts one sees-
But the country has hedgerows,
The country has trees.

As sweet as the sun
In the country is rain;
Oh, take me away
To the country again!

Message From the President of Homecraft Division

Welcome everyone to our 147th Grand Valley Fall Fair being held on September 20-21-22, 2019 . Our theme this year is "Country Roots & Boots."

Our convenors and their volunteers have put together some new ideas for the classes and hope you will find something of interest to enter. We need your exhibits to make our Fair successful.

We had 2,108 entries in the Homecraft, Junior and Livestock classes last year. Prize money and specials paid out totaled $8,730.00, with $1,612.00 going to youth! We appreciate your interest to participate and thank you very much.

Fourteen convenors, 68 volunteers and 15 judges organized the Homecraft Division. Over the fair week 222 meals were prepared for our volunteers. Special thanks to them, our directors, outside volunteers, members and sponsors who continue to support our fair with their donations, and most of all, their time to make our fair a success.

Hope you will take part and can attend our fair this year, and please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

2018-19 Senior Fair Ambassador Message

Welcome to our 147th Grand Valley Fall Fair. The fair is “an all-ages community event for agriculture, about agriculture and the rural way of life.”

Our Board and committees work hard each year to fill the weekend with interesting and interactive entertainment, to engage those attending the fair. We assess the previous fair, our budget and public feedback and then dream, plan and deliver the next fair. We know we will make most visitors happy; we may disappoint others and yet we are committed to provide a weekend with something for everyone! You will see many changes to our lineup this year. Our deliberations led to decisions about things to keep, drop or change. Weather is always a risk, so we have a full lineup both inside and out. New events also create risk. We hope you can understand our process, give events a chance and offer positive criticisms.

The focus of the Friday night program is to develop and grow the Ambassador program. The L'il Sir and L'il Miss competition will involve younger children. The Junior and Senior Ambassador competitions offer leadership opportunities, develop public speaking skills and spark friendships.

For the L'il Farmin' Fun area for younger children, we have brought in inflatables, a climbing wall, and redeveloped parts of Strawmania! We will ask that an adult accompany all children to this area.

The Grand Valley BIA has planned a Fall Fair Bash on Saturday night and their efforts will, we hope, bring out those new and established in the community for a night of music and hometown fun. We thank them for their assistance.

FMX World Tour offers track thrills and chills with stunt bike riders for three shows each of the three days of the fair. Edge Motor Sports runs our Demolition Derby and we rely on local participants to keep the races exciting!

King of the Pull was a hit last year and we expect even more entries in both tractor pulls Saturday night. Sunday will be a local and big rig truck pull. This is new for us; we would like to publicly thank Russell and Susan Simpson for all the years of running the Truck and Tractor Pulls.

The dairy heifer, sheep, goat and heavy horse shows present the best that agriculture has to offer—breeds, care and showmanship. Ask questions, get to know the farmers and enjoy the animal antics!

Our event brochure will be available by mid-September with more accurate times for all events. Pick one up, plan your weekend, come out and enjoy your time, helping us celebrate our community Fall Fair—highly respected as the best attended, financially sound fair in our area!

McKenna Hulse

2018-19 Junior Fair Ambassador

During my time as Junior Ambassador I attended local fairs and events to represent the community in hopes of expanding this program and grow our small fair each year. At our fair, my duties included handing out ribbons for the Kiddie Tractor Pull, livestock shows and Demolition Derby. I was able to decorate cookies, and greet everyone with a friendly, warm smile!

At Erin Fair, Paula and I brought greetings and decorated cakes for auction. I met wonderful fair ambassadors who spoke of their experiences. At our annual meeting I helped with the quilt auction. We also discussed future fair ideas and how to make our fair inclusive of people of all ages. I have enjoyed my year immensely.
Overall, my year as ambassador has been an eye opener. I've made new friends, learned new skills and gained information on the way. A thank you to Paula and the Fair board for making this program possible! I truly believe this experience as a fair ambassador, helps us gain confidence and public speaking skills. I hope the youth in our community will take up the challenge as it will help gain and expand your knowledge in a fun, inspiring way!
